

Burning Heart

Jaded Heart

There's a Light when the Dreams are broken
And it's shining to Guide, you the Way
So hold on tight to the great wide open
There'll be Salvation from the Rain

We're half Way there if we're believing
And I believe

That a burning Heart will never Fall
There's always one Light burning
And a burning Heart is standing Tall
There's always one Flame burning

Just over Night it all could happen
Today so right, tomorrow so damn wrong
So many Questions but not one Answer
So you go write a brand new Song

We're half Way there if we're believing
Wouldn't you agree

That a burning Heart will never Fall
There's always one Light burning
And a burning Heart is standing Tall
There's always one Flame burning

That a burning Heart will never Fall
There's always one Light burning
And a burning Heart is standing Tall
There's always one Flame burning

And I keep believing till my Time is over
And I'm a dreamer until I'm six feet under Till my Light goes down

And I keep believing till my Time is over
And I, I'm a dreamer until I'm six feet under

That a burning Heart will never fall
There's always one Light burning
And a burning Heart is standing Tall
There's always one Flame burning

That a burning Heart will never Fall
There's always one Light burning
And a burning Heart is standing Tall
There's always one Flame burning
