

Trust

Jaded Heart

You see me now
I'm not the one i used to be
Well I grew a little older
Now i stand on my feet
I've been around
But I've tried to find my luck in wrong directions
Deep inside oe me I knew that I would end up in frustration
The Reality was Way too hard and there was no salvation

I might Sound mysterious
Won't get too serious

No need to be afraid
It's a Matter of Life
Whatever it may take
Have Trust in your Love

So this is me, I do stand for what I am
This little Boy from yesterday became a man
So look and see, learn to understand
We all will go thru changes, now and then
Deep inside of me
I don't wanna miss a thing, my experiences
So if you wanna see
You have to realize your circumstances

But every now and then
You doubt yourself my Friend

No need to be afraid
It's a Matter of Life
Whatever it may take
Have Trust in your Life

No need to be afraid
It's a Matter of Life
No need to be afraid
It's a Matter of Life

No need to be afraid
It's a Matter of Life

Whatever it may take
You're giving in, you're giving up sometimes
It's a Matter of Life
You're feeling weak, you're feeling strong sometimes
That's a Matter of Life

No need to be afraid
You're giving in, you're giving up sometimes
It's a Matter of Life

No need to be afraid
You're giving in, you're giving up sometimes
It's a Matter of Life

You're giving in, you're giving up sometimes
