Saved By Grace

Jadon Lavik

Somewhere deep inside my heart and mind Your spirit moves and brings Your words to life Revealing all my sins, my careless ways Reminding me, my debt to You has been paid It has been paid And I've been saved by grace And I've been saved by love There is nothing more You could have done You sent Your son And I've been saved by grace Searching for the words to thank my king Humbled by my silent offering Tears of joy well from the depths of my soul There is no greater gift I know , I?ll ever know Ever know And I've been saved by grace And I've been saved by love There is nothing more You could have done You sent Your son And I've been saved by grace, saved by grace I've been saved by grace I've been saved by love There is nothing more You could have done You sent Your son I've been saved by grace I've been saved by love There is nothing more You could have done You sent Your son, You sent Your son I've been saved by grace I've been saved by love There is nothing more You could have done You sent Your son
