Warriors in the rain soaked jungle Fighters for an unknown cause Death reflecting every victim My life is lost in the reapers jaws

Daybreak brings more of the terror Napalm clears a path miles long My nostrils fill with scents of incineration The enemy lies in heaps, hundreds strong

Battle Zones You're in my Battle Zones Battle Zones

Rapid fire machines guns blaring Flames destroy cities by the score I must escape this evil vision Get my orders from the overlord

I see the final day is coming
I feel it way down deep into my bones
This nightmare is finally over
Is it time for this man to come home?

I'm coming home
