

I'll Be Damned

Jagged Edge

I'll be damned if I just let this fade out, fade out
Damned if I just up and walk out, walk out
Damned if I never feel your skin again
I stand here, heart bleeding, girl, I'm down here pleading

Damned if this don't leave me so sad
Girl, without you my heart hurts so bad
Damned if I just let this fade out
I can't believe it, damned if I just let this be

Ain't never been a quitter, momma raised no punk
If this was too far gone, I would just give up
It seems like every team I know they have a string of bad luck
That's when you get down in the trenches
Start protecting all our interests, yeah

Think, think, think about all that time, girl
You and me on that grind girl
Can't keep your body off my mind
I know that it means

Can't, can't, can't, can't let you go
No, don't wanna, wanna let you go
'Cuz I believe I'll be crazy to let you go
Crazy to let you go

Damned if I just let this fade out, fade out
Damned if I just up and walk out, walk out
Damned if I never feel your skin again
Stand here, heart bleeding, girl, I'm down here pleading

Damned if this don't leave me so sad
Girl, without you my heart hurts so bad
Damned if I just let this fade out
I can't believe it, damned if I just let this be

Girl, don't listen to what they saying
They tryna set us up, set us up
And all your lil' friends be hating
They tryna break us up

And they was your friends
That they hate to see you crying all night
Hate to see tears in your eyes
Hate to see your heart just stop

Think, think, think about all that time, girl
You and me on that grind, girl
Can't keep your body off my mind, my mind, oh

Can't, can't, can't, can't let you go
No, don't wanna, wanna let you go
Crazy to let you go
I'll be crazy to let you go

Damned if I just let this fade out, fade out
Damned if I just up and walk out, walk out

Damned if I never feel your skin again
Stand here, heart bleeding, girl, I'm down here pleading

Damned if this don't leave me so sad
Girl, without you my heart hurts so bad
Damned if I just let this fade out
I can't believe it, damned if I just let this be

I'll be damned if I sit here and let you cry
I'll be damned if I don't need you every night
I'll be damned if I don't give you what you need
Now that I know exactly what you need

I'll be damned if I sit here and let you cry
I'll be damned if I don't need you every night
I'll be damned if I don't give you what you need
I'll be damned now that I know exactly what you need
