Me That's Who

Jagged Edge

Every time you need a lover
Just a shoulder to cry
Every time you're hurt
Just tell me who was there to stand by?

Me, that's who, who
Girl, you know
Me, that's who, who, who

Who was there to dry your tears?
It never mattered 'bout why
Always try to cheer you up
And turn your gray to blue skies

Me, that's who, who
Baby girl, me that's who

Girl, I see a lonely night
But when you think of all these other nights
When you think of all the time
All the love that we put in
Girl, it just ain't right, just ignore these feelings

Had to see a lonely night
But I'm standing here right by you tonight
Time you get afraid, girl, I'm not the reason
That's where we're all afraid
'Cuz we don't know the reason

If it's gonna work in our way
And if it's gonna work in our favor
I'm not to blame, I'm not the enemy
Girl, I'm tryna save us, baby

Every time you need a lover
Just a shoulder to cry
Every time you're hurt
Just tell me who was there to stand by?

Me, that's who, who
Girl, you know
Me, that's who, who, who

Who was there to dry your tears?
It never mattered 'bout why
Always try to cheer you up
And turn your gray to blue skies

Me, that's who, who
Baby girl, me that's who

Seems like it's been an all rainy night
And your move changes with every day and night
Baby, all I said you don't have reason
Know that when we're pray it we can change the season

Girl, there goes my soul tonight

You can lean on me
Girl, I won't get tight

Girl, I'm not to blame
Just wanna shower you with my love
Wrap you up in my love
Give it all to you, you

Ain't a thing in this world
I won't do for you, you
And I'ma wrap you up in my love, 'cuz you

Every time you need a lover
Just a shoulder to cry
Just tell me who was there to stand by?

Me, that's who, who
Girl, you know

Who was there to dry your tears?

Me, that's who, who

Me, that's who
That's who, yeah
