What will take my love to show you
Am still in love with u
What will take my love to show you
How much my love is true

Feeling she gave to me, makes me feel so brand new.
Love u forever eav, there is no other like you

Baby, I know I hurt you twice,
Promise I'll never hurt you no more.
Although I know its not nice,
Promise I will never go back through that door.
Although you got your choice, please make sure the verses are cure.
Ill make my sacrifice, only you, no one before!!

What will take my love to show you
Am still in love with u
What will take my love to show you
How much my love is true

Feeling she gave to me, makes me feel so brand new.
Love u forever eav, there is no other like you.
