

Age Ain't A Factor

Jaheim

My my my my, my my my, my, my, my, my, my
My baby, my baby, my baby
What a lady, girl
Ooooooh

You're like a wine, you get better with time
Got your Nia Long on, dis your song, you're so fine
From everything that you wear, your kind of beauty is rare
And I swear you get better lookin' with every year!
Uh, uh, hit your sexual peak, your full figure physique
Young girl can't compete, come cook ya nia somethin' to eat, baby
And since we're in the kitchen, girl let me get that muffin
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Button!

Can't believe with time, girl you're getting better
Looking like a picture of before and after
Your story gets more pretty every chapter
Gettin' more attractive, age ain't a factor!
The young one that I got, I'm' bout to leave her
Cause berries sittin' on the vine, with time are sweeter
If I can be your man, girl, you won't want for nothin'
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Button!

You really need to let me in your world girl, what a proud girl!
No cougar you're still a kitten, hittin'
You workin' out girl, shut your mouth, you're lookin' thicker
You know how to hold your liquor
Nigga show me your ID, I get the picture
I propose a toast, playas raise your glass
For my Vivica Foxes and my Stacy Dash uh
Ladies it's Thanksgiving, and I'm about to eat that stuffing
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Button!

I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better (better)
Lookin' like a picture (oh ya) of before and after
Your story gets more pretty every chapter
More and more attractive, age ain't a factor (age ain't a factor)!
The young one that (oohhh) I got, I'm 'bout to leave her
Cause berries sittin' on the vine, with time are sweeter
If I can be your man, you'll never want for nothin'
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Button!

Effortless, make it look so easy
Cajun spice seasoning, sexy for no reason
Appetite pleasing, bout to sink my teeth in
If I tell them how good your love is they wouldn't believe me!

I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better
Lookin' like a picture of before and after
Your story gets more pretty every chapter
More and more attractive, age ain't a factor (age ain't a factor)!
The young one that
Cause berries sitting on the vine, with time are sweeter
If I can be your man, you'll never want for nothin'
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Button!
I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better
Looking like a picture of before and after

Oooooohh, age ain't a factor
You're more than I got, I'm 'bout to leave her
Cause berries sittin' on the vine, with time are sweeter
If I can be your man, girl, you won't want for nothin'
You look better the older you get - Benjamin Buttons!
