Bed Is Listening

Jaheim

You my girl and I'm your man
And if you in this for life
Keep mamma and your friends from crossing the line
I know they wanna see you happy
But it will be our demise
And you don't want that and I don't want that we don't want that We fuss and we fight and say things we regret
Like I wish I never met you and I hate you
Right before make up sex
I know they wanna see you happy
But baby it will be best
If we can make a bet
Girl let's make a bet
We can make a bet
The next time you get the urge to pick up the phone
To let everybody know that I know I did you wrong
Let it wait, wait until I get home
To tell the bed your condition the bed is listening imagine for a minute the bed is listening
Listening x 2 Imagine the bed is listening
Tell everybody your side (yeah yeah yeah) but you leave mine out
Now I'm the bad guy (I'm the bad guy)
When I come around (my baby)
Girl you got 'em thinking
I turn your smiles into frowns
They think that's all I'm about
(What) That's all I'm about
(They think) that's all I'm about
(Girl the next time)
The next time you get the urge to pick up the phone
To let everybody know that I know I did you wrong
Let it wait, wait until I get home (till I get home)
To tell the bed your condition the bed is listening imagine for a minute the bed is listening
We can switch positions the bed is listening imagine for a minute the bed is listening
Headboard Sheets Bedspreads Squeak
All that sexy pillow talk we been talking but the bed is listening (the bed is listening)
The mirror minage tell me why they up in ours
How I had your body twisted in them positions now the next door neighbors they be listening
(So) The next time you get the urge to pick up the phone
To let everybody know that I know I did you wrong (That I did you so wrong)
Let it wait, (just let it wait) wait until I get home

To tell the bed your condition the bed is listening imagine for a minute the bed is listening
We can switch positions the bed is listening imagine for a minu te the bed is listening
Listening
Imagine the bed is listening
