

Till It Happens To You

Jaheim

Yeah, ahh, its crazy man. Oh, Ohh, Ewww
You wouldnt believe it naw, till that right somebody comes along
You cross so strong, now your gone, floating out of your body
Plans yall maken, trips taken
You can't even remember your life before them
But you wont believe that its true, till it happens to you
To you, to you, ohh yeah

Till that Sunday morning when you heard that calling, pastor preached that s ermon, choir, organ, palms start sweating, knees shaken and you fall to your knees sayn thank you Jesus -- thank you Jesus
You wont believe that its true, till it happens to you -- yeah

And may your life be forever changed
May you find your voice, be forever brave
And on that day may you finally find that happiness that you pursue
May your eyes be open, may you see more vivid colors, green and blue
When it happens to you--to you
Ay

Till every other woman looks good, even though youre wifed up
On the side, got a sweet little thing, still playn games
Protection popped, ya just couldnt stop, then ya junior dropped
Then your wondering could this really be happening to me--happening to me
Ohh--naw--no

This morning didn't go like it was supposed to house foreclosed, third time for this interview
Resume that afternoon, thought you froze
Till they shook your hand and they welcomed you
Your hopes restored and renewed
And it happened for you -- yes it can -- yes it can -- yeah
May your life be...
May your life be forever changed
May you find your voice, be forever brave
And on that day when you finally find that happiness that you pursue
May your eyes be open, may you see more vivid colors, green and blue when it
happens to you
To you -- you - ay

I can recall the days of hearing myself say if I walk, talk, think a little differently
All those things that happened to them would never happen to me Till I found that girl, till I found the truth, I found out you pay for ever ything you do
Oh yeah

Till I found out I'm no different from you
May your life be forever changed
Find your voice, be forever brave
And on that day when you finally find that happiness that you pursue
May your eyes be open, may you see more vivid colors, green and blue when it
happens to you
Hey Hey Hey

May your life be forever changed
May you hear the words I say

May they shower you with God like ways
May your eyes be open, may you see more vivid colors, green and blue when it
happens to you
My your life be changed, hear the words I say
