Jakalope

Come to me
Baby
Follow my lead
I've a confession to make
It's always been this way

Oh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you

While I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I scream

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Less less than jaded, I
Still
Still I've changed

Do you feel
Naïve
Did you make me believe
Were you
Decieved
Oh you fell right on your knees

Oh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you

While I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I scream

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Less less than jaded, but
Still
Still I
I've changed

You've gotta crawl away now
No way I'll let you stay
You've got it goin on
I don't want to see your face

It's taken all this time
Before

I realized that I
Should go
Because I told you so I
Could let it go
Without a fight
It might not be right

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Still
I've changed

You've gotta crawl away now
No way I'll let you stay
You've got it goin
I don't want to see your face [x3]
