Can you forgive me, forgetting the past? Not learning my lesson s, I failed the test.

Forgetting the feeling, forgetting you. For only I myself to so oth.

Never turned my back from all the distractions, all of their commentary.

Now I know who I am, and I understand. No one can take this fro m me.

In my head it's caving in, in my heart is where I begin. For th e loss of your love.

Somebody stop me, I'll take it too far. Forget all my boundarie s and touch the stars.

When I look at the sky and the darkness is light.

Never turned my back from all the distractions, all of their commentary.

Now I know who I am, and I understand. No one can take this fro $\ensuremath{\text{m}}$ me.

In my head it's caving in, in my heart is where I begin. For th e loss of your love.
