

All Your Reasons

Jake Bugg

Got all of your reasons
And all of them been used
Read a lot about it
You can read up in the news
There's a lot of hungry faces
There's a lot of pain out there
Oh anyway, it's been a long, long day
Oh anyway

Didn't disappoint you
Didn't want to make you sad
Given all the choices
Good's given from the bad
There's a lot I need to tell you
There's a lot that you should know
Oh anyway, it's been a long long day

So if I keep myself from moving on
Oh angel, angel, angel will fly
'Cause it's my heart's desire
To set the world on fire
Oh angel, angel
Angel will fly to the moon

It's all, it's almost gone
And I'll be singing all the songs

Heard all the excuses
And all have been refused
I've read a lot about you
You can read up in the news
There's a lot of fairy tales
While it's a cold world outside

Oh anyway, it's gonna stay that way

So if I keep myself from moving on
Oh angel, angel, angel will fly
'Cause it's my heart's desire
To set the world on fire
Oh angel, angel
Angel will fly to the moon
