

I've been thinking about the way the world turns,
and my stomach churns.
When it finally hits me out of the sky,
I knew this day would come I'm on the front line.

Woah...
Don't know how to take it in, is love just suffering?
Cause I can see where the chapter ends
I've got autumn leaves and heartbreak dreams inside,
inside...
Cause you and and me on this frozen sea we slide,
slide....

I'll wait all on my own like a flower in the snow,
With just my shadow following me out into the cold,
Where I walk past the trees to look for my love.

Woah...
And its got me wondering, is love just suffering?
Cause I can see where the chapter ends
I've got autumn leaves and heartbreak dreams inside,
inside...
Cause you and and me on this frozen sea we slide,
slide....

Slide... Slide...
