

1972

Jake Owen

1972

Daddy drove a Nova, it was sky blue
He worked at a record store after school
Called sympathy for the vinyl

1972

Turntable in the basement, made you cool
A hippie girl, couple cold beers spinning tunes
You got your own rock n roll revival

Girl you know they did it right
So come on over tonight

I'm gonna rock you like Zeppelin and roll you like the stones
Blow out them speakers in my old headphones
Gonna fly like an eagle when I drop a needle in the groove, alright
I'm gonna get them LPs down from the attic
With a pop and a hiss and a little bit of static
We'll be chilling like a villain on some Dylan while we're killing some brew
s, alright
We're gonna kick it like the kids did in 1972

So it'll just be me and you.
Playing air drums with The Who's Keith Moon
You know them good ones always die too soon
Like Jimmy, Jim and Joplin

Yea, kicking back, cutting loose
Sipping on Jack, that's what we do
It don't matter baby girl cause in a few
You're gonna hear heaven a knocking

Look out!

I'm gonna rock you like Zeppelin and roll you like the stones
Blow out them speakers in my old headphones
Gonna fly like an eagle when I drop a needle in the groove, alright
I'm gonna get them LPs down from the attic
With a pop and a hiss and a little bit of static
We'll be chilling like a villain on some Dylan while we're killing some brew
s, alright
Well let's kick it like the kids did in 1972

I'm gonna rock you like Zeppelin and roll you like the stones
Blow out them speakers in my old headphones
Gonna fly like an eagle when I drop a needle in the groove, alright
I'm gonna get them LPs down from the attic
With a pop and a hiss and a little bit of static
We'll be chilling like a villain on some Dylan while we're killing some brew s
Well let's kick it like the kids did in 1972

Yea, we're gonna kick it like the kids did in 1972