

Places to Run

Jake Owen

I've lived all my life with no ties that bind
There wasn't anything or anyone that I couldn't leave behind
I could always find a getaway from what I was hiding from
It's looking like I've run out of places to run

Everywhere I go and everything I do
There ain't a corner that I turn that ain't one big déjà vu
She told me when I walked away this day would come
She was right, I've run out of places to run

Everywhere I go and everything I do
There ain't a corner that I turn that ain't one big déjà vu
I could always find a getaway from what I was hiding from
She was right, I've finally run out of places to run
Ohh, I've finally run out of places to run
