We all want what we ain't got, Our favorite doors are always locked. On a higher hill with a taller top, We all want what we ain't got.

We ain't happy where we are, There's greener grass in the neighbors yard. A bigger house and a faster car, We ain't happy where we are.

All I want is what I had, I'd trade it all just to get her back. She's moving on, but I guess I'm not.. Yeah we all want what we ain't got..

We all wish it didn't hurt,
When you try your best and it doesn't work.
And goodbye's such a painful word,
We all wish it didn't hurt.

All I want is what I had, Yeah I'd trade it all just to get her back. She's moving on, but I guess I'm not. Yeah We all want what we ain't got.

Woah-oh-oh-oh Woah-oh-oh-oh

All I want is what I had, Yeah I'd trade it all just to get her back. She's moving on, but I guess I'm not. Yeah we all want what we ain't got.

I wanted the world until my whole world stopped, You know a love like that ain't easily forgot. I guess we all want what we ain't got. Yeah we all want what we ain't got.
