

None Of This

Jam & Spoon

Ten Thousand Times
I couldn't make up my mind Heard One Million Rhymes-and stepped over few lines Well now I felt sure I wanted more of this
But what I felt more left me in such a blizz Where have you gone?
Cause you're - where I belong But you're - where I can't be and I - can't even see anything anymore
and I feel so sore
and I feel so sore

And if you could be here
I wouldn't need none of this
Believe me
I can't disappear here
let me just leave all of this let me leave all of this
way behind - way behind

Since I've been back I've been on your track trying to make up for the love I lack It's a shame and (a pack...?)
I thought opposites attract Well I was wrong for so long But it's so long gone and I can't hold on to what my own soul wants

if you could be here
I wouldn't need none of this
Believe me
let me leave all of this

I wouldn't need none of this
Believe me
let me leave all of this
way behind - way behind
