

Why?

Jam & Spoon

Watching through these streets
Watching all on knees
Where we land tonight
I can let down my needs begging you please stay by my side

And holding on just to today I'm holding to the word to say hoping that you understand hoping that you hold my hand and i feel like out tonight holding you so tight and i know that you won't lie and just one question

Why
Why do we argue and why
why do fight
night after night

Why
Why do we argue
and why
why do fight
fight, night after night

This wishing all the trees Containing you and me Won't last forever now
And i'm throwing caution to the wind I'm loving you for your sins
We will be together now

And i'm holding on so tight I'm never letting go tonight
i'm never letting go tonight
I'm never letting go of you
I'm living in a lie is true
i'm living in a lie is true
And i'm feeling like out tonight Sending you holding you tight
Just got one question
You got to ask yourself
