

Lie Down

James Arthur

Do my eyes deceive me?
Yea, I never saw a creature like you
And I'm confused so I am brave
I'm brave enough to tell you "you are one hot motherfucker!"

And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna sing you to sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby

I just don't believe it
Why would she mess with a brother like me?
But she's had a few so maybe she's blind
But I don't give a fuck 'cause tonight she's mine

And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna sing you to sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby

Lie down baby, let me show you what I want
Lie down... lie lie down
Oh lie down baby, let me show you what it's all about
Oh I just wanna take... I just wanna take you on yea
Lie down baby, let me show you what I want
Oh I just wanna take... I just wanna take you on yea

And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna sing you to sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby

Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby
