These Are the Words

James Blunt

Tender was my lover from the suburbs of town We were sweethearts from college she was always around We were good for each other but some things they just don't work out

There were tears in my eyes when she walked away We had plans to get married some day But the promises were broken before they were even made:

Now I'm dancing with a broken heart Ain't no doctor who can make it start These are the words that I'll never gonna say again Because I've given till I've given up One more casualty of easy love These are the words that I'll never gonna say again

Tender was my lover, god I miss her embrace And I wonder who it is that puts a smile on her face I recall the way she feels and oh I recall the way she tastes If I could hold her now then all that I'd see'd remind me of childhood memories She was the first day of summer, yeah that girl, that girl's for me

Now I'm dancing with a broken heart Ain't no doctor who can make it start These are the words that I'll never gonna say again

Because I've given till I've given up One more casualty of easy love These are the words that I'll never gonna say again

And these are the words that I say to your picture These are the words that I say in a dream These are the words that I wish I'd said to you when you were standing here next to me

Because I've given till I've given up One more casualty of easy love These are the words that I'll never gonna say again

Oooh now I'm dancing with a broken heart Ain't no doctor who can make it start These are the words that I'll never gonna say again

Now I'm dancing with a broken heart Ain't no doctor who can make it start These are the words that I'll never gonna say again
