

Real Love

James Durbin

Feeling older, fighting like a soldier
Floating on the sea of gold
Lightning striking, fires a blazing frightening
Hoping for nothing more

We'll face the weather, we'll sail away together
We can make it, mi amore
Astounding you found me, the light of love surrounds me
There's no way I could ask for more

When you say, what I said
That's not the way I meant to say
I'm sorry, guess I chose the wrong way
To let you know
I miss and need to feel your arms around
I swear that this is real love
Real, my love

Forever lovers, we'll never lose each other
We'll ride into the sun
The stars will follow, don't worry about tomorrow
We'll all keep shining on

So when you say, what I said
That's not the way I meant to say
I'm sorry, guess I chose the wrong way
To let you know
I miss and need to feel your arms around
I swear that this is real love
Real, my love

Sometimes we drift apart
But that ain't who we are
We just need some kerosene to feed the fire
Slow down, let's take it easy
Sometimes I can't believe it
It feels like fantasy that you are mine, yeah
You are mine, yeah

So when you say, what I said
That's not the way I meant to say
I'm sorry, guess I chose the wrong way
To let you know
I miss and need to feel your arms around
I swear that this is real love
Real, my love

I swear that this is real love
Real, my love
