

Be Strong Now

James Iha

And if she'd only say what's wrong
She can't go on

You've got to be strong now
And if i come and hold you now
You'll be safe and sound

Make a lonely face
That no-one ever sees
You see the things she believes
Since life is bittersweet and
She'd open up to me
And it's the only thing she dreams
You've gotta believe

You've got to be strong now
And if i come and hold you now
You've got to be strong now
If i hold you now
If i hold you now
If i hold you now

Oh God, if i could change a thing tonight
We won't be lonely
Oh God, if i could change a thing
What does it have to be this
You have to be strong now
And if i come and hold you now
You've got to be strong now
If i hold you now
If i hold you now
