One And Two

James Iha

you and I are one and two if you count we were both torn in two
you and I are one and two both our hearts beat as one did but is it ok, but is it ok if I runaway, is it ok when your love has faded away if I hold you tight and never let go if I hold you tight and never let show the I feel all around me I know its you you and I are hopeless too if I give you all my heart could and Im true (I need you) all my life I waited for and there's nothing left and theres no one else here live for anymore is it ok, is it ok if I can't escape in good faith or live just one more longer day
If I hold you tight and never let go
the way god moves deep inside of you I swear its you
if I hold you tight and never let go
if I hold you in arms forever all around me all around me and I swear its you
