Took a look around this cocktail landscape At the mud and the blood and the beer No more Balmain irony No more clubhouse cheer

Red salmon running way up the river Red sky's a sailor's delight Mother's stand in their calendered kitchens Blue Hills broke the night

She caught my eye Said don't you deny Surround yourself with light

She said
Any day above ground is a good day
Any moment alone with you
Any day above ground is a good day and true

We were sittin' and a 'chewing Marlboros Smoking on the red brick flats Calling all the cars on Davey Street Laughing at the boys in black

Any day above ground is a good day Any moment alone with you Any day above ground is a good day and true

She caught my eye Said don't you deny Surround yourself with light

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah She caught my eye Said don't you deny Surround yourself with light

She caught my eye Said don't you deny Surround yourself with light

She said
Any day above ground is a good day
Any moment alone with you
Any day above ground is a good day and true

Any day above ground is a good day

Any moment alone with you

Any day above ground is a good day and true

She said
Any day above ground is a good day
Any moment alone with you
Any day above ground is a good day and true