

Lost Angles

James Vincent McMorrow

And you feel it
You feel the pressure in your bones
It's resonating
Trying to conceal it
And you call me
You waited by the phone for hours
Thinking maybe do I manipulate you?
Have your cell phone, have you cell phone with the words of every goddamn as shole out here on the weekend
Can you feel it, you feel it in your bones
That something else can matter just as much as breathing

Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
Who am I to harm you?
What you wanna be this time?
You can be a wolf one day
Just howling away
Don't you look at me, darling
Cause I'm fine
I would never hurt you [?]
You're how I get through it

And there's a reason that people move or people don't
People change or people stay the same completely
And it's such a, it's such a [?] only then to leave
Is it better to live your life in shallow water [?] drowning in the deep end
So you fear it, you fear that every move you make is just [?]
You were just an amateur, no

Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you
Don't let fear control you

What you wanna be this time?
You can be a wolf one day
Just howling away
Don't you look at me, darling
Cause I'm fine
I would never hurt you [?]
You're how I get through

You're right
So right
So wide awake
You're how I get through
You're right
So right
So wide awake

You're how I get through

What you wanna be this time?
You can be a wolf one day
Just howling away
Don't you look at me, darling
Cause I'm fine
And I would never hurt you [?]
You're how I get through

You're right
So right
So wide awake
You're how I get through
You're right
So right
So wide awake
You're how I get through it

You're how I get through it
You're how I get through it
You're how I get through it
How I get through it
