Seek Another

James Vincent McMorrow

Don't go out alone
I have seen some terrible things
There's a waterfall
Quiet place where trouble can spring
Everybody goes
Throws themselves from the top of the stream
So don't go out alone
'Cause I have seen some terrible things

Who built the wall that reached the sea?
Who placed it here beneath my feet?
Who better here for you than me?
You let me come I let you lead
Open my lungs you need to be
Deep in my chest disrupting me
What happens after courage leaves

Back to our horses
Back to sleep

Don't go out alone
I have seen this happen before
Where creatures think they're grown
Creatures think they'll scratch at your door
But there's another world
A purple wave collapse on a shore
So don't go out alone
'Cause I have seen this happen before

Who built the wall that reached the sea?
Who placed it here beneath my feet?
Who better here for you than me?
You let me come I let you lead
Open my lungs you need to be
Deep in my chest disrupting me
What happens after courage leaves

Back to our horses
Back to sleep

There's a diamond ahead
And I can't feel my legs
Check the pulse in my neck
There's a diamond ahead
There's a diamond

Send a car around 8
Always trying to be late
Now I can't look away
'Cause there's a diamond ahead
There's a diamond

Who built the wall that reached the sea?
Who placed it here beneath my feet?
Who better here for you than me?
You let me come I let you lead
Open my lungs you need to be

Deep in my chest disrupting me
What happens after courage leaves?

Back to our horses
Back to sleep

Everything is frozen
Everything is frozen I believe
Everything is frozen
Everything is frozen I believe
Everything is frozen
Everything is frozen I believe
Everything is frozen
Everything is frozen I believe
