

Lookaway

James

I pretend that I know where
I'm going
I pretend
I know where
I came from
All the fear will engulf me completely

I choose to waltz this bridge of sighs

Act my age in an age of indifference
I'm as big as I can dream
I forget in the truth of my nature

I forget to forgive so I look away

Look away (6x)

I can't stop, so I carry on I don't trust
God is on my side
Indirect as a gaze of a geisha

I'm still that lost and lonely child

Look away (repeat anekatips)

All mirrors shattered
All plastic clowns
All that really matters
You weren't in the building when the walls came crashing (2x)
