Jamestown Story

Everyone is watching, everyone is waiting, everywhere we look now, all there is is hating
We just have no tolerance, we don't compromise, all we are is worthless objects, in our own damn eyes
Caring for each other, just does not exist, all we want to do is solve our problems with our fists....
So let's change this, rearrange this, don't contribute, try to change it
Be forgiving, to all living, because life's too short to hold a grudge for time, please just try...
Everyone is watching, everyone is waiting, no one's even hopeful, everyone's so jaded
Good times never come and bad times always seem to last, everything's so screwed up cause we live our lives too fast...
