

Why

Jamie Foxx

You are my favorite girl,
I was your favorite guy
And somehow I thought that we'd always be down (down)
We went through crazy times,
Inside this crazy mind,
Somehow I thought that you would always be around.
Somehow we changed up, we flamed up
And every day you're fighting with me.
(baby, baby, baby)
And then it came up, I asked did you love me,
Who knew that would be the last time we speak.

All I could say is why (why, why)
What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming
All I can say is
Why why, why why why why why why why why
For the last two months I was
Kissing you goodbye
Bye bye bye bye bye bye bye
Kissing you goodbye
Bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

Behind your lovely eyes,
Couldn't see those lovely thighs
That couldn't break her in over a course of time
You could unbreak this glass heart,
By just saying we're not apart
By how can I go on knowing my love is blind?
So many makes ups, So many break ups
I never thought I'd see u leave, (you leave, you leave)
I'ma put it to rest; because all I want is the best for you,
You still haven't told me how I hurt so I deserve the answer to,

Why (why, why)
What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming
All I can say is
Why why, why why why why why why
For the last two months I was
Kissing you goodbye
Bye bye bye bye bye bye bye
Kissing you goodbye
Bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

All baby how, can you leave me like this
Through all the smiles, and all the cries,
The love we had I thought was divide
No why, could u do me like this,
I guess love question lesson would have learned to say
There are no real answers to

Why (why, why) ohhhhhhhhhh
What did I do? What did I say? I didn't see this coming
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
Why why, ahhh baby why
For the last two months I was
Kissing you goodbye
Bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

Baby whyyy, shawty why.
You are my favorite girl,
I was your favorite guy
And somehow I thought that we'd always be down (down)
