

Just A Friend

Jamie Grace

I saw you in the hallway with all of your friends and everything around you moved in slow motion.

The girls think I'm crazy, I kind of agree.

But it's hard to be cool whenever you look at me.

And I can be immature when I'm lying on the floor,

Photoshopping us together like I'm all yours. But you just learned my name.

Man, I think it's kind of whack.

Have you seen my sweet shoes and my new backpack yet?

Somebody tell me why this hurts so bad and why can't I find someone like my dad? (I love you dad.)

Why can't you just see what I see?

But you say I'm just a friend, you tell me I'm just a friend.

I think I could make you happy.

But you say I'm just a friend,

Tell me I'm just a friend.

So I'll be that, that, that,

Oh I'll be that, that, that.

I guess that's that, that, that.

But I don't wanna be just friends.

You probably think I'm too young to feel this way.

To you I'm a crush that just won't go away.

So even if you move on and have a happy life, I promise I will pray for you cause I'll be doing fine.

See I can try to be mature, act like nothing's really wrong,

But you probably know I'm thinking by the time you hear this song.

And I don't mind saying how I feel,

As long as I stay true and keep it real.

Somebody tell me why love takes so long.

I think I'll just watch Reba with my mom (haha yeah).

Why can't you just see what I see?

But you say I'm just a friend, you tell me I'm just a friend.

I think I could make you happy.

But you say I'm just a friend, tell me I'm just a friend.

So I'll be that, that, that,

Oh I'll be that, that, that.

I guess that's that (I don't know baby sis).

But I don't wanna be (but I'ma tell you like this).

Huh, you ain't gotta ride slub girl, slow down (okay).

When you meet him you gon know, wanna know how?

(How?) He gon treat you right, make you the queen of life.

If he don't then I'ma take him out (what?), sike (haha).

All kidding aside, God has the perfect one that was made for you, designed to worship.

God and He sees your beauty and true purpose.

So baby sis, trust the process, it's worth it.

So Father I will place this in your hands (that's right).

You know me and all my crazy plans.
Humbly I surrender this to You (all to You, Lord).
So I'll keep dreaming,
You'll keep coming through (You keep coming through, yeah).

I know You see what I don't see,
So I'll be just a friend.
I'll be just a friend.
I know that I will be happy, even if I'm just a friend.
I'll be just a friend.

So yeah, that's that, that, that.
I hold it back, back, back.
You tell me you wanna be best friends.
That's that, oh I'll be that.

I'm telling you I'll be just fine.
