

Revolvin'

Jamie Grace

Oh my gosh, can't believe she's dating him
I heard he asked her out in farmville
Twitter, Facebook, everywhere
Don't tag me in that picture,
I don't like my hair

All this stressin' keeps me busy
Oh, but thankfully

I'm finally revolvin'
I'm finally revolvin'
I'm just a little bitty speck
in this big ol' world
I need a weekend with all my girls
Revolvin'

Eye shadow, eyeliner and lip gloss
Give me half an hour before I can leave the house
I need to look cute, I need to look fly
Imma take a while, y'all can leave me behind

My phone broke a week ago,
I asked my parents for a new one but they said no
I haven't been able to text and I'm goin' insane
Without my T9, I feel so plain

All this stressin' keeps me busy
Oh, but thankfully

I'm finally revolvin'
I'm finally revolvin'
I'm just a little bitty speck
in this big ol' world
I need a weekend with all my girls
Revolvin'

Oh, I don't like when my internet's out and I cannot write on your wall
Don't like when my cellphone's whacked and I cannot text you or call Don't like when I realize I have 15 cents left on my iTunes card Hehe..

But I'm finally revolvin'
I'm finally revolvin'
Oh, I'm just a little bitty speck
in this big ol' world
I need a weekend with all my girls
Revolvin'

I'm finally revolvin'
I'm just a little bitty speck
in this big ol' world
I need a weekend with all my girls
