

Your Sweet Boom

Jamie Lidell

I'd like to synchronize with you....
I'm a man of the mind trained in institutions of every kind learned to suppress my emotions there's a lot of people like me walking around in their heads lost touch, long ago with with the blood red and the
I want to slip into your rhythm and your falling in step with your you and I we love to grind naked 'gainsts the knives of the haters
no more afraid we got brave and we don't need no armor for protection
we don't have to play dead coz we've got the blood red and the
now we're together everywhere we care to rome and we don't ever never ever have to walk along You got me up from my knees
coz we've got the blood red and the boom boom boom boom
I long to slip into your rhythm and your boom boom your sweet boom boom
I long to synchronize
