Karma (Hardline)

Jamie N Commons

I heard all I needed
Cannot fight the signs
I could taste the blood there
I can taste the lies

I can't see the sorrow
I can't find the light
See the angel of death there
She's slowly coming to town

Just when you thought that the war was won
Just when you thought that the race was done
It's coming back 'round
It's coming back 'round
It's coming back 'round to get you

Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again, I'm gonna put you down
Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again I'm gonna put you down

Why don't you hold your hands up?
Why don't you take your stance?
You should have let me die here
You should have took your chance

I feel a turning tide now
I feel it fade to black
I take the sun from your stars there
Now you can't defend

Just when you thought that the war was won
Just when you thought that the race was done
It's coming back 'round
It's coming back 'round
It's coming back 'round to get you

Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again, I'm gonna put you down
Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again, I'm gonna put you down
Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again, I'm gonna put you down
Karma, Karma
What goes around comes back around
So when I see you again, I'm gonna put you down
