

Standing In The Rain

Jamie Scott

While you're talking to me
With blood on your hands
You're tired of being a stranger
Tied up in his plans
You cry forever
And all you wanna know
Is how you ever got here
Why he ain't loving you

Hope you just don't stop praying
When the water does fall

'Cause standing in the rain
Ain't gonna leave you dry
People say your love pure, one of a kind
Standing in the rain
Ain't gonna leave you dry
People say no

We all fall sometimes
Get burned sometimes
Get cut wide open
Thought you'd learn by now
So why you wanna do this?
Why you wanna fall?
Why you keep pretending?
To make sense of it all

Hope you just don't stop praying
When the water does fall

Standing in the rain
Ain't gonna leave you dry
So stand up and feel the light
Don't you wanna see
All that you've got inside
Your love is pure, one of a kind

Standing in the rain
Ain't gonna leave you dry

So take the chains off your world
'Cause they ain't gonna do you well
Take the lock from your heart
Open it, 'cause it ain't hard
It ain't hard

Oh woman just don't stop praying
When the water does fall
'Cause standing in the rain
Ain't gonna leave you dry
Stand up and feel the light
Don't you wanna see
Oh woman, 'cause your love pure, one of a kind
Standing in the rain

See, your love is one a kind
Standing in the rain
Dry..
