

Alcohol & Bandages

JamisonParker

The house is still at midnight
By one, we'll be a wreck
Alcohol and bandages
Will soon follow this mess

Sleeping's overrated
We lie awake and cry
If this is love
Then kill me now
And save me from my life

The house is dead by morning
As good as new again
The morning-after funeral
Is coming to its end

Smiles aren't too tempting
And hope's as good as lies
Memories are pain
That lost their meaning over time

Just close your eyes
Everything will be okay
Just close your eyes
Everything will be okay
(Just let us sleep)
Just close your eyes
Everything will be okay
(Remembering us for the best)
Just close your eyes
Just close your eyes (2x)
