

Completely

Jan Howard

I took one look at you and all at once I knew
I'm yours my whole life through completely
Your smile's so tenderly your kiss was heavenly
You took control of me completely
Your torch is like a fire burning deep inside my mind
Your lips are like a flame in the night
I feel your breath I hear your sigh and in your arms I find
Having you and loving you just must be light
If you should go away my life would end that day
Like dreams that slip away completely

Mhm mhm completely
