

Hurtin's All Over

Jan Howard

A year ago today I felt like dying as unloved and unwanted as a heart could be

But time has a way of changing yesterday now the hurtin's all over all over me

Yes the hurtin's all over all over my body

It started in my heart and it's spread all over me

Father time did his part took the hurt out of my heart

Now the hurtin's all over all over me

Now my arms ache to hold you like they used to do

And my eyes ache for the love light they no longer see

How I miss your caress how my lips ache to be kissed

Yes the hurtin's all over all over me

Oh the hurtin's all over...
