

You Really Know

Jan Howard

You really know how to make a girl cry, don't you?
You really know how to make a girl sigh, don't you?
You don't know too much about things like being true and wedding rings
But you really know how to make a girl cry

You really know how to make a girl love you
Even when she knows you don't care
And you really know how to keep her
Searching for love never was there

You really know how to make a girl fall, don't you?
And stay home praying you'll call, don't you?
You don't know too much about things or how it feels to love in vain
But you really know how to make a girl cry

You really know how to make a girl cry, don't you?
You really know how make a girl cry
