Say Goodbye

Jan Wayne

Time is running out
we're trying to hide the tears away i'm going to leave you today all the things we've done we've tried to keep the feeling strong nothing can bring back these days bring back these days
say goodbye
don't wanna make you cry please hold me close once more tonight
and please don't ask me why we couldn't make it
till the end
