

Dreaming Man

Jandek

And we'll all wake up in the morning
Ink spots on your feet
You know you been walking down the pages
Of a mysterious dream
But though you did not understand
That this was a different land
And I was your dreaming man
See that rainbow you're steppin' on
Oh no it wasn't there before
It's from your eyes they must be open
Crying for a dream once more
Oh no you didn't understand
That this was a different land
And I was your dreaming man
Yeah when you wake up in the morning
Shakin' for a hand
You know you had a whole body
Lovin' at your command
Oh when you see the sunrise of the day
You know it's far away
Since the night you left your baby
Since the night you heard him say
You did not understand
That this was a different land
And I was your dreamin' man
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
