

I Just Might Go Now

Jandek

I'm standing firm at the front room
You can't take me away
I might just go now
In my own time
I will come out of my body
And make you run away
I got a new idea
It's taking over me
I will be, be, be
I will be what I am
I got the resolve
But it's just an adjustment
Of your body, mind, and soul
And when I'm there is way long ago
I'll go to the middle of society
I don't think I know so much
But I do, I got my license to do anything
I'm sitting in the front room
Where are you
You're in there
You're not a body
But I'll take your body
Please give it to me
I'm talking about every day
And the nighttime too
I'll sit in the front room waiting for you
And when you'll come we'll have the whole house
I got to think where it is Without that I got to be where I am
Come on and be here too
I welcome you
I'll be the best I am
I made a promise to do that
Please say yes
