

Would You Go

Jane Siberry

There's a hole in the roof where the rain comes in
would you go?

Or say it is a long and dusty road and your feet are bare and your throat is parched and you don't know where to go and a man stepped forward and said "would you go?"
would you go?

Or it was a foreign land and the oars were dropped and a voice said "will you walk?" and you saw nothing
would you go?

Oh my sweet sweet darling it's been a long long way down and it's been a long long long long time oh but I have found you and I cannot stand here and watch you go

Or say it was a long and winding path and your feet are bare and the road is rocky and you don't know where... and you want water

There's a hole in the roof where the rain comes in
