Behind the curtains I hide from the eyes of the world And I know for the certain That this storm is lurking around And as much as I try to I never can fight it away Its taking me down, down, down I wanna see the fights and fall I wanna catch a glimmer of hope I want you to keep my call I want you to give me more than your soul Pick me up Will you? Pick me up From the floor tonight I'll stand up If you Pick me up Pick me up tonight Make me smile Again Falling in deeper Than I've ever dreamed of before Now its so much more than Just keeping the wolf from the door Forever thinking and constantly sinking below Don't wanna go down, down, down I wanna see the fights and fall I wanna catch a glimmer of life I want you to keep my call I want you to give me more than your time Pick me up Will you? Pick me up From the floor tonight I'll stand up If you Pick me up Pick me up tonight Make me smile Again Need you to fight and fall

Need you to face my all

Need you to give me nothing but light

I want you to keep my call Come and brave this storm Want you to give me more than your life

Pick me up
Will you?
Pick me up
From the floor tonight

I'll stand up
If you
Pick me up
Pick me up tonight

Pick me up Will you? Pick me up From the floor tonight

I'll stand up
If you
Pick me up
Pick me up tonight

Make me smile Again
