

There Are Times

Janis Ian

There are times I wish I could be a little bit stronger
There are times I wish the night would be a little bit longer, longer I used to think I could carry the load
Now it seems so many years ago
My time, your time
Time of the mind, mind time,
You can have it
There are days when I'm amazed that I'm still standing Keeping my place, I fight through the haze only by gambling, gambling
When I was younger I thought I was strong Now I'm still younger but I have not long
My time, your time
Time of the mind
You can have it
There are times, moments when I didn't really feel like crying There've been times I knew that I would do better by sighing Dying
Sometimes I think it's easy to fall and then I remember, kid you gotta be tall
My time, your time
You can have it, cause I can't take it There are times I wish that I could be a little bit stronger
There are times I wish the night
could be a little bit longer, longer Sometimes I know it's easy to fall and then I remember I've gotta be tall
My time, your time
Time of the mind
You can have it cause I don't want it If you want it you can have it I can't take it, I'm falling, I'm calling Please, please, help me
Please help me
