

Talking about almost nothing spending time mostly fussing about her makeup and her hair should I even care while I wait half an hour as she stops and talks to her old boyfriend alone I should have stayed home Take your time when you find someone and make sure you're the only one to get lost in her eyes and don't be so surprised when you find out she's not everything perfect girls are just a dream, they never will come true for guys like me and you

(chorus)

didn't we always try something didn't we always try nothing didn't we always say forever now I know it seems like nothing seems to Just like before,
I'm stayin home again
until my heart breaks
and to always before you'd make it right again but now everything has changed

Stood in line for an hour or two got the stuff and sat down just in time to watch the show now where did she go in the back kinda hiding out, him and her were making out what else can I say, I watch a movie anyway

Just like before,
but now everything has changed
