

i keep dreaming of this girl who don't know me she don't know i exist as i stare at this girl i just wonder what it'd be like just to talk to her cause in my dreams she loves me and that's all right with me cause i tend to sleep a lot because when i awake i'm still invisible every day i watch her walk to class with her boyfriend i just wish he was dead in my head i see her i can't even do my homework study hall i thank you
