If I had everything I wanted And there was nothing left to get If every lover I had fought with Was on their knees to get me back

I?d be glad
I?d be glad

If I had everything I hoped for If everything had gone my way Then every tear would be a diamond And every dog would have his day

I?d be glad
I?d be glad
I?d be glad

Is this real life Is this ... Is this real life

If I had everything I dreamed of
If every moment was sublime
All the hurts and all the heartache
Where just a figment of my mind

I?d be glad I?d be glad I?d be glad I?d be glad
