

I Only Wanted Sex

Jann Arden

Cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry

The hardest part of goodbye
The hardest part of all
I say those words to you now
And I watch you crawl back to me
Where is your dignity
Oh where is your dignity

I make you promises and
I break them all apart
I'm lying like a sidewalk
A typical loves me, loves me not
A typical loves me, loves me not
A typical loves me, loves me not

I never really loved you
I never loved you back
I never even liked you
I only wanted sex
Sex

Cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry baby

The hardest part of goodbye
Is moving all your stuff
Hey what's the name of that one guy
I sure could use his pick up truck
I surely could use his pick up truck
I surely could use his pick up truck

I never really loved you
I never loved you back
I never even liked you
I only wanted sex
I never really loved you
I never loved you back
I never even liked you
I only wanted sex
Sex
I only wanted
I only wanted sex
