

Fire's Highway

Japandroids

A northern soul in southern lands
Will always find his way to southern hands
She'll kiss away your gypsy fears
And turn some restless nights to restless years

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh

A soul of fire and eyes of flame (oh)
Tend to overwhelm her tender frame (oh)
And when raw winds blew us down her city's streets (oh)
She warmed my body with her spirit's heat (oh)

Some empty bottles, the cold sweat blues (oh)
Howling like outlaws from her rented room (oh)
No rising sun confession, dear (oh)
Only a restless night I'll nurse for years (oh)

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh

One night to have and to hold
Oh
To let live, but never let go
Oh

A northern soul in southern lands
Will always find his way to southern hands
She'll kiss away your gypsy fears
And turn some restless nights to restless years

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh

Hearts from hell collide
On fire's highway tonight
We dreamed it, now we know
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
